

Table of Contents

I. Introduction	11
II. Deliberative Democracy: From the Ideal to the Real	19
Models of Deliberative Democracy	19
Objections	23
Internal Objections	23
Rational Choice and Real World Objections	24
Postmodernist Objections	26
Reconfigurations	29
Deliberation in the Real World of Politics	29
Against Postmodernism	34
Implications	36
III. Institutions and Deliberation	39
Actors in Institutions	40
Institutionalism, Old and New	41
Rational Choice Institutionalism	43
Sociological Institutionalism	44
Historical Institutionalism	46
Bringing it Together	51
Favorable Institutional Context for Deliberation in Legislatures	53
Consensus versus Competitive Democracies	53
Presidentialism versus Parliamentarism	61
Second Chambers versus First Chambers	67

Non-public versus Public Arenas	68
Low Issue Polarization versus High Issue Polarization	70
A Constellation Model of Parliamentary Deliberation	72
IV. Research Design	75
Basic Methodology: Typological Sampling	75
The Selection of Legislatures and Debates	80
Legislatures	80
Debates	83
Measuring Political Deliberation	116
Past Measurement Efforts	117
The Discourse Quality Index (DQI)	118
Reliability of the DQI Indicators	128
Creating the Index	134
V. Analysis	137
General Remarks	137
Descriptives	137
Statistical Analysis	148
Results	152
Hypothesis 1: Consensus versus Competitive Settings	155
Hypothesis 2: Strong versus Weak Veto Power	164
Hypothesis 3: Parliamentarism versus Presidentialism	168
Hypothesis 4: Second versus First Chambers	173
Hypothesis 5: Non-public versus Public Arenas	177
Hypothesis 6: Low Issue Polarization versus High Issue Polarization	181
Discussion	187