

Contents

Introduction.....	15
Section I.....	17
The theoretical background of the EU- Integration Policy towards Turkey in comparison to the Mediterranean Cooperation Agreement	17
1. Preface.....	17
2. Problem Definition.....	17
3. Terminology of Theories.....	18
4. Theories	20
4.1. Economic Integration	22
4.2. International Trade	22
4.3. Location Theory	24
4.4. International Relations Theory.....	25
4.5. Development Theory.....	25
5. Methodology	25
6. How these relations have been designed.....	27
7. EU Policy towards Turkey and Morocco.....	29
8. Globalization and EU.....	31
9. EU Economic and Political Situation.....	33
10. Turkish Economic and Political Situation.....	36
10.1. Ankara Agreement	37
10.2. Importunacy of Turkey for the EU.....	37
11. Moroccan Economic and Political Situation.....	41
11.1. FDI in Morocco.....	42
12. EU Political interests towards Turkey and Morocco	44
12.1. EU and USA Policy towards Morocco in Comparison.....	45
12.2. EU Neighborhood Policy towards Mediterranean Countries.....	46
13. A Comparative Account of These Relations.....	48
13.1. The Meaning of Hinterlands for EU	50
13.2. FDI in Turkey and Morocco.....	51
13.3. Export- Import in Turkey and Morocco	52
14. Conclusion.....	56
Section II.....	57
Customs Union with Turkey	57
1. Objective of the Paper.....	57
2. Concept of Customs Union	57
3. Theory of Customs Union	57
4. Effects of the Customs Union	60
4.1. Static Effects of the Customs Union	61
4.1.1. Specialization Effect	61
4.1.2. Consumption Structure Effect.....	61
4.1.3. Distribution Effect.....	61
4.1.4. Trade Creation and Trade Diversion.....	61
4.1.5. Welfare Effect	61
4.1.6. Terms-of-trade Effect.....	61
4.2. Dynamic Effects of the Customs Union.....	62
4.2.1. External Effect.....	62

4.2.2. Polarization Effects	62
4.2.3. Investment Effects	62
4.2.4. Competition Effects	62
5. Customs Union with Turkey	62
5.1. Contractual Basis of the Customs Union with Turkey	62
5.2. Objectives of the Customs Union for the EU	63
5.3. 12-year-List	64
5.4. The 22-year-List	64
5.5. Proponents of the Customs Union in Turkey and their Opponents	65
5.6. Existing Problems in Practice	66
6. The Effects of the Customs Union between Turkey and EU	66
6.1. Export and Import	66
6.2. The Foreign Direct Investment in Turkey	69
6.3. Financial Assistance during Customs Union and Accession Process of Turkey into the EU	70
7. Final Remarks	70
Section III	71
EU-Mediterranean Cooperation	71
(The Project of the MEDA Program)	71
Preface	71
1. Theoretical and Methodological Viewpoint of this Project	71
2. The Findings of the Project	73
3. Neighbourhood Policy of the EU as a Constitutional Objective	73
4. The Target of Maghreb Countries for the Mediterranean Partnership	73
5. The Barcelona Process	74
6. The Financing of the Barcelona Process	74
7. The Allocation of Funds	75
8. The Mediterranean and development cooperation policy of the European Union	75
8.1. EU Development Aid	75
8.2. Immigration Policy in the EU	76
8.3. Economic Policies of the EU	77
8.4. Instruments of Cooperation and Goal of the Projects	77
8.5. The Projects under the MEDA Program	77
9. Implementing the MEDA - Projects and their Meaning	78
9.1.1. Economic Factors	78
9.1.2. Political Factors	78
9.2. Implementation of the MEDA Projects	79
9.3. Type of Projects	80
9.4. Financial Allocation of MEDA Funds	80
9.5. Implementation of the MEDA Program in Morocco	81
10. Resume and Conclusions	82
Section IV	83
Comparative Analysis in Research	83
Preface	83
1. The Terminology of the Comparison	83
2. Development of Comparative Theory	84
3. Common Application Areas	85
4. Difficulties of Comparative Analysis	85

5. Comparative analysis in Practice	86
Résumé	88
Section V	90
Appendix I.....	90
Country Facts: Turkey and Morocco	90
Appendix II:	98
MEDA- Projects with Maghreb- Countries	98
Bibliography.....	156